An interesting story of a lady who had a headache and every time she would come to the table to read, "Follows, follows." Finally the lady's curiosity was aroused. She got her Bible and investigated. "She was very much shocked and maybe you will be too when you find out what she read."

The Cape will have a building boom this year. There are inquiries at this office nearly every day for building lots. We know several well-to-do Scott county men who want to move to this city to educate their children and if they cannot purchase houses already built, they will purchase lots and build.

A new minister walking down the street encountered a little chap vainly trying to ring a door bell which was too high above his head. "Wait my little son," said the good man, "let me ring it for you," and he gave the bell a vigorous pull. "And what now my little man?" "Now," said the boy, "run like a horse, that's what I'm going to do."—Ex.
